MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

This matter is before the court on case management. On October 25, 2018, the court permitted Plaintiff's Eighth Amendment claims against Dr. Jeffrey Kasselmann in his individual and official capacities to proceed to service of process and directed the Marshals Service to serve Dr. Kasselmann. (Filing No. 28.) Service on Dr. Kasselmann in his official capacity was accomplished on November 28, 2018 (filing no. 30), and he filed an answer in his official capacity only on December 18, 2018 (filing no. 31). To date, service on Dr. Kasselmann in his individual capacity has not been accomplished. Upon consulting with the Marshals Service, the court has been made aware that service on Dr. Kasselmann in his individual capacity has been delayed due to the federal government shutdown and the restrictions on the types of matters the Marshals Service may expend resources on during the shutdown. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that:

1. The delay in accomplishing service of process on Dr. Kasselman in his individual capacity due to the federal government shutdown will not count against the 90-day time limit for service of the amended complaint. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m).

2. When the Marshals Service is able to resume service of civil summons, the court will monitor this case to see that service on Dr. Kasselman is accomplished within a reasonable time and, if necessary, will enter further order directing the Marshals Service to complete service by a date certain.

3. Once service upon Dr. Kasselman in his individual capacity is accomplished, the court will enter a progression order.

Dated this 15th day of January, 2019.
